

The Saviour Jesus Christ, the Beginning and the End, the One Who Will Come to Judge the Living and the Dead

His Eminence Acad. PhD Prof. IRINEU POPA, University of Craiova, cabinetmol@yahoo.com

Abstract

The beginning and the end of this life are moments of supreme nearby from God, Who is always new and renewing. Also, the act of Resurrection represents our beginning and pledge, like Saint Paul the Apostle Sais, which is the work that our Lord is the Firstborn from the dead. In the same time, Her Resurrection is the argument for our own immortality.

In all this specifications of Resurrection we have in mind the common center that is our Lord Jesus Christ, the One which destroy death and bring in to the world eternal life and immortality. Therefore, the Resurrection is the mystery of hope and endeavors of this world that are contained in God through the Holy Baptism. This believes justify that the Christian, which is baptized in the death and Resurrection of our Lord, live a mystical life in God, envisioning from here the new and eternal life from the Kingdom of Heaven.