

The Reality of the Particular Judgement Reflected in the Orthodox worship Text

Fr. Asist. PhD COSMIN SANTI, University of Târgoviște, santicosmin@yahoo.com

Abstract

According to Christian teaching, after separation from the body, the soul continues its life in another world, on another plane of existence. He extended human life beyond the grave, where he keeps all his faculties. After separation from the body, the human soul is subject to the righteous judgment of God, to which must give an account of life on earth. Sentence the particular judgment is given not only based on the facts committed by man but have in mind his words and thoughts. The fact that the supreme Judge of the people is Christ the Lord, for He is not the greatest honor, but for people. But Judge dignity of God is different from the Savior. But Christ relation love the two dignities in a very special way beyond our comprehension and knowledge, and His judgment is milder than we deserve a new than anyone could do it without yet disregard justice.