

Saint Emperor Constantine the Great (306-337) and his Relationship with Christianity

MARIAN-EMANOIL PĂUN,
University of Bucharest, marianemanoil.paun@gmail.com

Abstract

Saint Emperor Constantine the Great was born of Christian parents and faithful to Naissus, in 273. Emperor Constantius, Constantine's father, was the only tolerant emperor of the fourth century. Her mother, Saint Auguste Helena, had a strong contribution in religious politics. Saint Emperor Constantine the Great gave a Christian trajectory of the Roman Empire, continued and the her sons. The Orthodox Church honors him as with his mother at 21 May.