Abstract

Dogmatist theologian through excellence, Father Dumitru Stăniloae, one of the most brilliant theologians of the Orthodox world and the contemporary Christianity left as inheritance to the church that he served with honor and dignity, over six decades, a vast and monumental theological work.

Developed and designed at the highest theological level in an own personal exposure, his work also addresses to theologians, monks and all the faithful, start on the road of God knowing, willing to spiritually progress and a deep understanding of the mysteries of God .

Regarding how the three divine Persons enter into relationship with the Church and the faithful, Fr. Dumitru Stăniloae, in agreement with the Church Fathers, affirms that Father makes all through the Son in the Holy Spirit, in a manner that Father appears as a source of work, Son as life and Holy Spirit as power which materializes or completes the action.
