Abstract

The teaching about the mysterious Body of our Lord is not a separated topic within theology, but she has to be interconnected with the work of the Holy Trinity, which is its source. The Church is centred and based on the Holy Gospel, which means the proclamation of the Incarnated Word, our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father. In this article, in a theological way, we explain how the spiritual life in the Church is the path in which Christians acquire the salvation. The basis for it is in our Lord Jesus Christ, through the restoration of the human nature assumed in Himself. The Holy Apostles, proclaiming the Gospel, under the power of the Holy Spirit, have brought the humans to salvific faith and incorporated them into the mysterious Body of the Lord, through the Holy Mysteries. In conclusion, the Church is called into being by God the Father, through the Son into the Holy Spirit.
